How to crack ielts speaking test

Crack IELTS Speak Exam with 8+ Score Band Many IELTS candidates are puzzled during the IELTS language exam. This article will let you know all the tips and tricks you need for Crack the IELTS Speaking Exam with 8+ Band Score. Almost all multinational organizations seek bands between 7 and 9 when recruiting people from the country of origin or from different countries. To get a good score of the band, try to talk every day. If you are not good at speaking English, read aloud (any paragraph from the newspaper or from the book) for 20 minutes every single day. After 1 month, you will notice the difference in your speaking. Also during the practice, record the item, so that you can vote the results later. What is an IELTS conversation test? The conversation test is a face-to-face conversation with a certified examiner and the duration of the speaking test is about 10 minutes. It is so close to a real life situation as a test can get. The examiner will ask you for familiar topics such as home, work or studies. The interviewer begins for the first time asking you to present yourself and inform you about your similar / disorientation, hobbies, interests, etc. Then in the next section examiner will ask you to talk about an argument for 1-2 minutes. The second part is where he/she would give you a topic and ask you to talk about it for about two minutes. You'll have a minute to get ready for what you're about to talk. So, in that duration, see the topic (That would be written on a piece of paper that the interviewer would share with you) and make a flow chart or list the important things that you might want to say regarding this topic. In this section the examiner expects to be fluent without grammatical errors. Examiner also expects to use a good vocabulary. Also, be clear with your ideas and opinions and ask for any form of by the examiner so that you do not make mistakes. The band's scores are predefined and a particular group is assigned on your performance and competence in the language. The higher the group, the better the job you have. While Band 6 speaks only of proficiency in the language, it is at Band 7 that you are certified to be a good user, a very good user at Band 8 and an expert user at Band 9. Tips for getting 8+ Band Score1. Avoid the wrong focus: Instead of focusing on example exams and mock responses all the time, focus on language improvement, reading and writing as a practice. If you focus too much on the exam model, your understanding of the exam can improve but not the English language. This will not help.2. Be comfortable in your native accent: IELTS judges how good you are in language and not where your origin is. It is a myth among students who do not – native students cannot get a high end. That's not true. If grammar, vocabulary and language basics are in effect, you can also get a band 9 despite your native accent.3. Don't distract yourself. Sometimes the examiner can look in the clock during the conversation test. This should not hinder your fluidity and should not leap you. You should have enough control over yourself to keep talking despite some distractions.4. Improve your vocabulary: Strong vocabulary becomes a prerequisite for getting higher bands in IELTS. Keep adding as many words to your vocabulary as possible. This cannot be done in a day but make conscious attempts to expand your word power.5. A pocket dictionary is the "mantra": It is a fact that getting used to bringing with you a pocket dictionary and refer it as and when necessary it is the best and easiest way to improve vocabulary and improve language. Even if you spend 15 days with your pocket dictionary honestly, you've accomplished more than half of your work.6. Suctions must bewith preparation: There is no doubt that aspiring for a Band 7 and above will require littlehard work and inputs of those necessary to eliminate the lower bands. It's vital that you have to prepare yourself well. a couple of things you can do for a good preparation are:– take a couple of mock exams.– try to speak only in English for a couple of days at home with family and friends.– monitor the writing speed while keeping a chronometer and noticing how many words you write per minute. You can increase the same if necessary for as many as twice the speed in just 10 days.– record your voice and listen to the same later for errors. More importantly, learn from these mistakes.– brush the grammar and vocabulary of high school.8. last minute revision: there is no replacement of the last minute revision. is still the successful mantra of all toppers7. avoid stuttering be clear with your ideas and opinions ask for any form of clarification from the examiner so that you do not make mistakes9. do not give up: if you forget during the conversation, you can start from the beginning. However, renouncing and apologising for the same will only drastically reduce the signs. However, trying to repair for the lost part will only help to take signs. 10. the best way to prepare for this particular section is to speak your way through it, choose a topic and record yourself during conversation. If you have practiced enough, I think you should be able to get good results with ease. 11. Don't get angry. The interviewer will not really look at what you are talking about. he/she will pay attention on how you are talking. to be crystalline, fresh and safe while talking. exam tips to get 8+ bandwidth score in ielts speaking1. Try talking as much as you can. speak as fluently as possible and be spontaneous.2. be confident and lengthen your arguments. develop your answers. request clarification if necessary.3. do not leamprepared; the examiner is trained to locate this and will change the question. Express your opinions; you will be rated on your ability to communicate.4. The Examiner The Examiner tend to be quite predictable. take many tests and if possible practice at home and register yourself (this will increase the level of trust.) watch bbc news and many other English series so that you can improve vocabulary. give many examples, as it creates a good impression on the examiner.5. you can practice speaking standing in front of a mirror. do this a couple of times and you will have confidence in the end.6. you can watch various movies in English, drama series and listen to songs in English to improve your command over the language and make your experience more enjoyable. click on a star to evaluate it! average score / 5. vote: how to crack ielts speaking test pdf. how to crack ielts speaking test part 2. how to crack the ielts speaking test part 1. how to crack the ielts speaking test part 1 pdf. how to crack the ielts speaking test part 1 pdf download. how to crack the ielts speaking test part 1 ebook. how to crack the ielts speaking test part 3. how to crack the ielts speaking test đấng trâng tưng
